

If/Then

Week 1

Bottom Line: If He is Who He says, then I will follow His lead.

If someone asked you to picture Jesus in your mind, what would He look like to you? No matter how you see Him, chances are the image you have of Jesus probably comes from a lot of places—things you've heard, stories you've read, or pictures you've seen depicting Him. The good news is that Jesus didn't leave us guessing who He is. Instead, He gave us the next best thing to actually knowing Him on Earth—His words and actions, which give us a picture of who He is and that He is worth following.

Week 2

Bottom Line: If Jesus is the Good Shepherd, then you are in good hands.

Have you ever been overcome with awkwardness or embarrassment? Sometimes the whole idea of God can make us feel that way. We're afraid of what God really thinks of us or how He will feel when we mess up. So we avoid going to church, praying, or getting closer to God to keep ourselves from feeling uncomfortable. And it kind of makes you wonder, is this how following God is supposed to be? This week we'll look at the book of John about who He is, and that our relationship with Jesus doesn't have to be shaped by embarrassment, judgement, or insecurity. In fact, we can rest knowing that our lives are in good hands.

Week 3

Bottom Line: If Jesus is the bread of life, then you can be satisfied.

Do you ever wish life felt more like an epic movie? Filled with moments where the hero wins, the guy gets the girl, and everyone rides off into the sunset together? Unfortunately, we all know those moments are usually saved for the big screen. Real life just isn't jam-packed with those incredible movie moments. Because of that, real life can sometimes feel a little less than exciting—even boring. What if you could find fullness and fulfilment in your life during the normal, everyday moments? That's exactly how Jesus wants us to live—fully satisfied no matter where we are in life. And if we can fully embrace who He is, we may just find our everyday lives becoming more epic and exciting than we ever imagined.

SPECIAL GUEST IN LIFTED YOUTH

Raquel Washington from Maryland, USA

Raquel is currently studying Old Testament Theology at Indiana Wesleyan University. Whilst at Heidi Baker's Bible School in Mozambique she became good friends with Mariah, and loves to connect with young people and share the love of Jesus with them.

Raquel will be visiting the UK during July and we are so looking forward to her ministering to Lifted Youth on Sunday 16th and 23rd July, and she will also be joining Friday nights those weeks to be with the youth too.

COME AND MEET RAQUEL;

If/Then

How do you normally introduce yourself? Maybe you start with, "Hi. I'm (insert your name here)." But what comes after that? Sure, you can talk about where you go to school, or what hobbies you're into, but that doesn't really introduce anyone to you, just facts about you. When Jesus talked about Himself, He would make statements like, "I am the Good Shepherd" and, "I am the bread of life." As strange as they sound, these statements give us a better picture of who Jesus is. Because if He is a shepherd, then we are His sheep. And if He is the bread of life, then we can be satisfied in Him. In this series, we'll discover that the way Jesus described Himself, gives us a clue into who we are as well.
